

ANDREW HAIGH MBE

Job title

Independent Governor

PROFILE

Andrew Haigh had a long career in financial services spanning over 30 years both in the UK and the US and China. He was head of NatWest Group in North America from 1999-2000. More recently he headed the Entrepreneurs division at the private bank Coutts.

He also has a longstanding involvement in the arts sector spanning more than 20 years, he has been a trustee of a number of public art galleries and in performing arts, he has been a trustee at the Mountview Academy of the Theatre Arts and for 10 years a member of the Council at the Royal College of Music. He is currently a member of the Council at the University of Hull.

In 2022 he was awarded an MBE for services to the arts.