Biography

Born 1980, Portland ME. Valerie McCann is a South London based movement director. She has worked collaboratively with artists and ensembles across the US, UK and Europe. In Los Angeles Valerie was a founding member of ARTEL (American Russian Theatre Ensemble Laboratory). She trained extensively with SITI Company in New York City and collaborated with company members and associates on several new works. Valerie was a member of the international ensemble Dynamika Metamorfozy with NetTheatre at the Grotowski Institute in Wroclaw, PL. She assisted director Samantha Shay/Source Material in the creation of several new works, including the premier of A Thousand Tongues at the 2016 Theatre Olympics. She has worked in collaboration with artist Than Hussein Clark for many years and is a member of The Directors Theatre Writers Theatre.

Valerie's recent solo performances are inspired by her teachers Deborah Hay and Mary Overlie. Valerie is also a dedicated yoga practitioner with advanced teaching certifications and 12 years of teaching experience.
