Visiting Lecturer - Saturday Youth Theatre, Evening Courses (Working with Text)

COURSES

Evening Courses
Saturday Youth Theatre

PROFILE

Juliet trained at the National Youth Theatre and then at Rose Bruford Drama School where she gained a BA in Theatre Arts. She is passionate about telling stories and excited by collaboration, curiosity and conversation. Her approach to rehearsals involves creating an ensemble and encouraging honesty.

She has worked extensively as a director as well as working on education projects across London and further afield with organisations such as National Youth Theatre, Unicorn Theatre, Access All Areas and the Shakespeare Schools Festival. She is currently in the process of establishing her own company “Bunch of People” (BOP) which is an ensemble of creatives who combine authenticity and playfulness to make inventive new work.

In addition to her teaching and directing work, she has recently been performing and devising for The Globe Theatre with Sonnet Walks and All Places that the Eye of Heaven Visits at Westminster Abbey
