

ADAM COLBORNE

Job title

Visiting Lecturer - Saturday Youth Theatre

---

COURSES

Saturday Youth Theatre

---

PROFILE

Adam is an actor, theatre maker and practitioner who trained at East 15 Acting School on the Contemporary Theatre course where he received a BA Hons (1st Class).

Adam was a founding member of Boneyard Theatre, dedicated to blending modern verse and poetry with high octane movement, whose debut show Sandpits Avenue won the Herald Angel Award at Edinburgh Festival 2013.

He has since worked across TV: Wasted (E4), Good Omens (BBC), Film: Journey's End (2017) Maleficant 2 (2020) and Theatre: Idiots (Soho Theatre), Aladdin (Oxford Playhouse), The Croydon Avengers (Maya Productions).

Adam has worked as a workshop leader with young people in various settings and has specialised in making work accessible for those with Special Educational Needs.